CARNIVAL OF FLOWERS TOUR 2019

Thursday 19th September 2019 – Monday 23rd September 2019

70th Anniversary of Toowoomba's Gardens Extravaganza

We have great pleasure in announcing our 2019 Carnival of Flowers Tour. This is going to be a very special year for C.O.F. this year, as we shall be part of the 70th Anniversary celebrations. Full details of the celebrations are still to be announced, however it will be super exciting to be part of it. As accommodation is always at a premium in Toowoomba this time of year, we suggest you do not leave it too long before making your booking.

Thursday 19th September 2019:

Rockhampton to

Toowoomba

Our coach will depart Northside Plaza at 6:30a.m; PUMA George Street 6:45a.m; Gracemere 7:00a.m. At this time of printing this itinerary, we have not decided on which route we will take.

Saturday 21st September 2019:

Toowoomba

Excitement abounds today as we have again managed to arrange for one of Toowoomba's finest tourist guides to join our coach. Barbara McGovern is a true gem and is passionate about Toowoomba. We have also pre-booked undercover seating for the Grand Parade this afternoon, and as stated earlier being the 70th Anniversary, this should be a not to be missed parade.

Sunday 22nd September 2019:

Toowoomba

As is usual for our Carnival of Flowers tours, we always like to include a "sightseeing experience" for our passengers. This year we have chosen to visit The Gleneden Family Farm, home of The Gleneden Bullock Team. Situated east of Warwick in a picturesque valley, The Gleneden farm is owned by Rohan & Fiona Morris. Rohan & Fiona together with their children Eden & Jethro will be our hosts for morning tea and some true country hospitality. On departing Gleneden, we will travel to one of the rustic hotels in the area for lunch before returning to our accommodation in Toowoomba.
